

Sisters of St. John of God

Data Protection Statement

As a congregation we the Sisters of St. John of God, value and respect the rights and privacy of every individual in accordance with Data Protection.

Our Policies and Procedures regarding Data Protection are in line with the relevant guidelines and legislation in each civil jurisdiction in which our sisters, their colleagues, employees and volunteers are engaged in ministry. We fully comply and cooperate with civil law in each jurisdiction where we work and with Cannon Law.