

Cork Three Faiths Forum invites you to a webinar on

Women of Faith - Working Together for Peace

on Tuesday 1st March from 7.00 pm to 8.15 pm

Presenting the work of two interfaith groups of women in very different situations, one in Ireland and the other in Nigeria, both promote tolerance, mutual respect and peace in their communities.

Sisters of Faith for Peace a Dublin-based group who nurture peace and reconciliation in Ireland's relatively new multi-faith and multi-cultural society.

The Women's Interfaith Council based in Kaduna, Northern Nigeria is composed of Muslims and Christians. It is a forum for dialogue towards peace and women's empowerment. The courage of this group in a situation where interreligious conflict, intolerance and violence are a frequent reality, was recognised internationally when the group was presented the Aachen Peace Award 2021.

Following presentations, participants will be invited to engage in the conversation via a facilitated Question and Answer session.

We hope that you can join us in this special event which offers us, men and women, an opportunity to learn from the experiences of these women of faith who work for the mutual respect, tolerance and understanding so much needed in our world today.
